OK. Here are my revisions as a redline and clean copy.

I would like us to not get bogged down with tweaking the language as this is not our final response, but a sketch of our potential response. I think it is important to start getting these in front of management so we can start moving ahead in the right direction.

Karen, thanks for elaborating.

Ravi, I'll make edits to the BaP comment response outline documents, based on this info and our discussion on Friday, and send them back to you this afternoon. Ravi, once you send them forward I think we should schedule a meeting with Vince and Samantha (and cc: Lynn) so we can get some feedback on the direction of these comment responses.

it is going to be extremely tight to begin with. This should be taken up by the science council as a separate matter.

Thanks for your edits Karen.

I am not clear about what exactly you mean by your statement made in brackets (highlighted in red below):

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Perhaps this is best cleared up with a quick phone call? Are you in tomorrow? I would like to get this in front of Vince, Samantha, and Lynn soon.

But we have a time limit, and I'm not trying to sabotage it.

I have a few comments. Well-written, even if I thought it was too long for a reading by Vince, Lynn etc.
Suggested deletions.

Hi Ravi, here is a draft of a couple issues I'd like to run by the higher ups...maybe Vince, Lynn, and Sam to start?
I have another issue I would like to present to them, but I have not been able to fully articulate it. I can work on it over the next few days. For now, why don't you take a look at this and let me know what you think.
